PRINCIPAL'S NEWS

Today I finish my first Term as Principal of RSC and I would like to thank all those members of the community who have personally welcomed me. Through attending a number of activities I have been able to see the enormous range of opportunities the College offers young people in our community.

I have really enjoyed seeing the results of the learning of the Performing Arts students. The production of 'Revolution' was outstanding on many levels. The 8D class performance of 'Belonging' showcased young people willing to step outside their comfort zones, and on Wednesday I had the pleasure of watching our Wakakirri team perform at the Melbourne Recital Centre. On each occasion I have been struck by the content of the performances, the depth of learning required to develop performances that have direct academic links.

Most schools run a number of excursions and extra-curricular activities, however I have never worked in a school that so consciously connects these activities to the local community and a sense of social conscious. I congratulate the student leaders on their running of Harmony and Wear it Purple days, and look forward to working with them next term. I thank the staff for the number of camps and excursions they organised and facilitated this term.

Research tell us that parent involvement in education is extremely important. I enjoyed meeting many parents during the recent interviews and thank them to talking to me about the College. I also enjoyed meeting current and prospective parents at the Active Minds celebration.

At the commencement of this Term I made the commitment to meet with as many members of the community as possible. I am pleased to say that I have met with almost every staff member individually, I have spoken with many parents, talked with plenty of students from all year levels, and have met with a range of community members. These conversations have helped me develop a deeper understanding of the unique Rosebud culture. I intend to continue working with the community to lead us on a journey of learning growth and school improvement.

I would like to finish by reminding our Year 12 students of the importance of working hard over the coming break. Many teachers are either running holiday revision programs, or have provided the students with a structured revision timetable. As Dumbledore said "It is not our abilities that show what we truly are. It is our choices." Choose wisely.

COLLEGE NEWS

The Year 10 social event of the year was held at the Mornington Race Course on the evening of Friday the 15th of September. It certainly was a night to remember. Everyone was dressed immaculately. The girls looked glamorous and the boys looked debonair. Jess Roberts was on hand to take photographs of the night's proceedings and many availed themselves of the opportunity to get various group shots throughout the night.

The evening was MC'd by Mr Morrison who provided lots of laughs, with quite a number of awards being given for various observations he and other staff made throughout the night.

There was lots of dancing with DJ Chaz playing many popular tunes. Daekota and Lachie took up Mr Morrison's "hard work" challenge to get Mr Pattison and Mr Neale up dancing and were well rewarded for their efforts. In fact it was rare to see anyone sitting down except to rest some very sore feet.

It was great to see 138 young adults having so much fun and the night helped cement friendships that will be enduring. Another highlight was the support of the 15 staff who attended on the night.

Undoubtedly the night was a great success and we look forward to future social events with this impressive group of young people.

YEAR 11 STREET ART TOUR

As a component of the Year 11 Studio Art & Art courses, we have been studying Street Art and Street Artists. This included a recent extremely informative Street Art Tour through the Melbourne CBD. Our guide, an artist from The Blender Studios, knew the 'ins and outs' of street art and graffiti pieces. He gave us an insight into what it is like to be a street artist and taught us about the street scene and the levels of respect and disrespect for artists' work on the streets. We ended the tour with a walk through The Blender Studios and got a glimpse into some of the artists' work stations and artworks.

As a further extension to this learning, we will be taking part in a community event which explores this theme through the creation of a collaborative Art Show.

The Street Art Show will open on New Year's Day at Rye Carnival and will feature the paintings that we all produce in class. The artworks will be for sale, with the proceeds going towards The Wellness Pavilion at Rosebud Secondary College.

HOL NEWS

Hands on Learning has had a busy year so far. We have been working up around our shed a lot, improving our workspace and outdoor areas. The new decked area looks great and we have plans to expand this into an outdoor eating area. The Pump track is now tantalisingly close to completion and when the last few little jobs are completed, we will plan an official opening sometime in Term 4.

We have also been busy installing a new green house in the horticulture zone; this will allow the school to grow their own veggie seedlings. It will also allow us to grow native plant tube stock for planting out around the school. We hope everyone has a great break and we will see you all after the holidays!!

Cheers,

The HOL team

SPORT NEWS

SOUTHERN PENINSULA ATHLETICS

Training for our Athletics squad begun bright and early four weeks ago with a shared goal of participants reaching their personal best. Weather was kind for our 7:00am starts with the students eating up the opportunity to receive specialist coaching from our dedicated Physical Education staff. A huge thank you to Mr Neale & Mr Egan for their above and beyond efforts in getting the squad event ready. With some doubt over the competition day last Thursday due to inclement weather, we prepared for the worst and luckily for everyone involved the weather gods looked after us and decided to not hit the Ballam Park Athletics Track with the forecasted hail and thunderstorms. Our squad consisted of 60 participants from all year levels of our College.

We had some fantastic individual and team performances, with a number of students smashing their PB's. Team spirit was high with a number of students putting their hands up to compete in events on the day to step in for others that were absent due to illness. Overall we came a respectable 3rd place with sheer numbers from our larger neighbours being hard to compete with. The table below shows the students who have won promotion to the next level of competition which is at Casey Fields on the Thursday the 12th of October. Special mentions to Brianna McCrindle, Abbey Jordan, Skyla Lauch, Brittney Lee & Lachlan McKenzie who all won multiple events. We wish all students the best of luck at the next stage!
